

European Semester

*Understanding Europe
and the European Union*

cfé

Study Abroad:

90 days in Europe

90 days about the European Union

90 days of cross-cultural experience

european-semester.com

experience

Benefit from an intensive study abroad program in Europe contoured to the Texas A&M academic calendar.

Understand the philosophy, logic and design of the European Union by exploring its historical foundation and the contemporary political, economic, social and cultural challenges facing Europe.

Profit from first-hand insights into European affairs from political decision makers and distinguished academics.

Study with the Centre international de formation européenne (CIFE) – one of the six European Universities receiving special support and funding by the European Union.

Acquire invaluable global skills and knowledge through extended cross-cultural interaction with European faculty and international students at CIFE.

Gain expertise in European Studies and significantly improve your competitiveness in the international job market.

Earn up to 15 hours of transferable credits awarded by CIFE: 9 hours of political science, 3 hours of humanities electives and 3 hours of diversity.

Semester-long program based in Berlin, one of Europe's leading political centers, offering a rich multi-cultural environment for internationally oriented students.

The schedule is contoured to the Texas A&M spring semester.

Extensive courses in the fields of:

- Contemporary European History
- Political System of the EU and its Decision Making Process
- European Law
- European Markets and Economy
- European Identity, Culture and Integration

Visits to various European institutions in Brussels (Belgium), Strasbourg (France) and Luxembourg City (Luxembourg) to learn directly from European Union decision makers.

Study trips to Poznan (Poland) and Budapest (Hungary), offering a unique, first-hand insight into Central Europe.

Expeditions to historical and political sites like Sanssouci Palace, Cecilienhof Castle, the Berlin Wall Memorial, the German Ministry of Defense and the German Federal Parliament to enrich your experience of Europe and the European Union.

Further excursions to other European capitals and sites are possible. Check out european-semester.com for new developments!

enrollment & organization

- The program is open to all majors (sophomore, junior & senior) with a 2.0 minimum GPA.
- The language of instruction is English and there are no language requirements or other prerequisites.
- You are assisted and accompanied by CIFE staff throughout all activities of the program, including the field trips and excursions.
- CIFE provides fully furnished, fully equipped & centrally located apartments in Berlin.
- A daily stipend for groceries is included in the program fee.
- Public transport passes are provided for the entire duration of your stay so you can make the most of your Berlin experience.
- CIFE will assist and support you with all administrative and personal issues.

Spring in Berlin

- No prerequisites for enrollment
- Small class sizes
- Housing in fully furnished apartments
- Daily stipend
- Public transport passes
- Intensive support by CIFE

syllabus

The European Semester's curriculum is designed to provide you with a comprehensive introduction to the study of Europe and European integration.

You will be taught in private classes by internationally renowned professors of European Studies and related fields from different European Universities.

- Module 1 : Modern historical context of European integration, its political and legal aspects as well as theoretical approaches to the study of European integration
- Module 2: Visits of European Union institutions and briefings with European decision makers
- Module 3: Overview of policies and policy areas of the European Union
- Module 4: European integration seen from a Central European perspective
- Module 5: Issues, debates and challenges of the European integration process

“Studying abroad with CIFE was an amazing experience that left me yearning for more when it comes to the European Union. I learned so much in the classroom, but the part that I loved the most was that they made us learn outside the classroom by taking us to different parts of Europe. This was the perfect program, in my opinion.”

Ryan Cardenas, 2013

Prof. Dr. John D. Robertson

Department of Political Science, Texas A&M University

The European Semester is an innovative and sound educational platform designed to deliver to Aggies a rich and robust cross-cultural European experience. It ensures a dynamic and rewarding social encounter through the interaction with European educators, policy makers and college-age youth, and a thorough and comprehensive introduction in the classroom and field to the history, culture, institutions and policies of the EU in particular, and the broader European governance system in general.

Prof. Dr. Matthias Waechter

Director General of CIFE

CIFE is reaching out over to America, and finds in TAMU an excellent partner for scientific education in a globalized world.

Americans and Europeans are bound together by shared values, and should learn more about and from each other. Together with our colleagues and partners all over Europe, we offer specifically tailored European and international studies programs at a level of academic excellence. We are proud of the European Semester program, which provides us all with challenging new experiences, bridging the Atlantic.

With the support of the Erasmus+ Programme

This project has been funded with the support from the European Commission. This publication reflects the views only of CIFE, and the Commission cannot be held responsible for any use which may be made of the information contained therein.

For more than 60 years the Centre international de formation européenne has been promoting the values of Europe, European integration and governance, multilingualism and student mobility through its European and international higher education programmes.

As CIFE President I am pleased to be able to contribute to the next stage in the development of this academic institution.

Herman Van Rompuy

President Emeritus of the European Council
Belgian Minister of State
President of CIFE

European Semester

*Understanding Europe
and the European Union*

Program in Europe organized by

CIFE Centre international de formation européenne
Bundesallee 23, D-10717 Berlin (Germany)
Email: european-semester@cife.eu

*For inquiries and application at Texas A&M University
please contact*

Vince Hernandez, '02, M.Ed.
Senior Academic Advisor
Department of Political Science
2010 Allen Building, 4348-TAMU
College Station, TX 778 43-43 48
Phone: (979) 845-31 27
Email: vhernandez@tamu.edu

european-semester.com

