REGULATION

I hereby request to be registered for the session of :.....

1. The signed registration forms must be sent by E-Mail to :
Marie- France PERDIGON – CIFE –81 rue de France– 06000 NICE direction.mfp@orange.fr marie-france.perdigon@cife.eu
as soon as possible. Applications are considered as soon as they are received.
2. In order to take full advantage of the course, the candidates should be at an advanced stage of their university studies or justify sufficient professional experience.
3. A good knowledge of the working language of the session is necessary (English or French). For the French language sessions, passive knowledge of English is necessary.
4. REGISTRATION FEES include (OBLIGATORY) :
 - 4.1. Study Fees, including academic programme, cultural activities and all meals proposed during the session. The accommodation in shared rooms is offered only for candidates with the official status of student (and only student).
 - 4.2. Administration Fee.
Registration becomes final only after the integral payment of the expenses (with or without grant). In case of withdrawal of participation at least one month before the beginning of the session, the payment will be reimbursed after deduction of the Administration Fee remaining property of CIFE in order to cover administrative treatment. If the student cancels his or her participation less than one month before the beginning of the session, no reimbursement of the Registration fees will be made but the registration may be transferred to the next summer and the candidate will have to pay only Administration Fees when he or her applies again. After one year, registration is lost.
5. PAYMENT :
 - candidates with the official status of student (and only student), have to pay the obligatory registration fee and they will be accommodated in shared rooms (2 or 3 in each room, exceptionally 4 people in a room depending the proposed accommodation).
 - young professionals (even following an additional degree) have to pay the obligatory registration fee but have to manage their housing themselves. However an extra payment is proposed if they want to be accommodated under the same conditions as students.
 - Alumni of CIFE. Special conditions are offered for the alumni of CIFE.

Registration fees do not cover other expenses like laundry, medical fees, entertainment, etc..) Participants have to contact their own medical insurance system to provide a guarantee during their stay abroad. CIFE is not liable.
6. TRAVEL
from the student's home town to the destination country has to be paid by the participants as well as any trip on site, in particular from the hotel to the conference room. If a free day is offered to the students for personal visits, all expenses will be at their own charge.
7. Any person accompanying a participant has to be accepted by the direction and must entirely cover living expenses (if any) and administration fees.
8. All the students must arrive on the official opening of course and remain until the end of the programme. They must accept to follow the entire programme and show active participation. Any participant, who leaves early cannot claim to any reimbursement.
9. It is possible to apply for several Summer Sessions. The applicant will be accepted according to the availability.

10. Participation in all classes is obligatory. In case of unauthorised absence, the student may be excluded from the session and won't receive the certificate.
11. The organisers of the Summer Session do not provide computer equipment except if the partner in the country is able to do it.
12. All the students must formerly agree to respect the rules of the session, particularly with regards to the timetable and the community life. Students will be housed in shared rooms, either in apartments, hotels, hostels or dormitories depending of the available accommodation of the country. On request and in case of available twin rooms, they will be able to share their room with a student of their choice.
13. ECTS Credits (European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System)

Candidates may be able to acquire ECTS in accordance with the Bologna Process. ECTS is a system of capitalisation of transferable credits conceived by the European Union. It is based on mutual recognition between university programmes of the individual workload achieved by the student to attain the objectives of their programmes.

Students wishing to acquire ECTS credits for their participation in this Summer Session will need to provide additional work, i.e.:

- Compulsory attendance in all the activities of the Summer School,
- oral test with one of the programme lecturers at the end of the session,
- Personal research and writing of a summary of the course have to be sent to CIFE according to the rules and in the delay explained in the ECTS publication.

(in case the oral test is not possible during the period of the summer school, the candidate will have to write a longer and more detailed summary in place of the oral exam)

The student must obtain marks above 10/20 for each of the above mentioned exercises in order to be awarded the ECTS Credits. If he or she does not reach this mark, he or she will only receive a certificate of participation.

In order to plan the programme of the Summer school efficiently, only students who have specified their interest for the ECTS Credits on their registration form will be allowed to qualify for this programme. Requests made after the initial registration will not be taken into account.

General Data Protection Regulation : GDPR

In accordance with the Data Protection Law, some personal data is required for the management of the candidate's administrative file. Only INDISPENSABLE data is requested and will be kept at CIFE to be able to contact the candidate later.

On the other hand, pictures are taken throughout the programme and will be kept at CIFE as an archive of the session. They will also be used to publish a detailed report for the use of future candidates.
