

GOAL 17

PARTNERSHIPS FOR THE GOALS

Higher Education Institutions and Sustainable Development

Kick-off Debate

What Universities (Can) Do

3 November 2021, 6:00–7:30

Hybrid event on Zoom.

VENUE CIFE Berlin Conference room
Kielganstraße 4a, 10783 Berlin, Germany

LIST OF SPEAKERS

PROF. DR IRIS BOROWY

Shanghai University, Center for the History of Global Development, Shanghai

Prof. Dr Iris Borowy is Distinguished Professor at and Director of the Center for the History of Global Development at Shanghai University. She was educated at the Universities of Tübingen, Germany, and of Maryland at College Park, USA. Her research has addressed the history of international health and environment organisations as well as development concepts. Her publications include Coming to Terms with World Health. The League of Nations Health Organisation (2009), Defining Sustainable Development for Our Common Future, a history of the Brundtland Commission (2014) and History of the Future of Economic Growth (2017), co-edited with Matthias Schmelzer.

DR ARNAUD LECONTE Centre international de formation européenne, Nice

Dr Arnaud Leconte is Academic Programme Director in charge of the Joint Master in Global Economic Governance and Public Affairs and the Joint Master in EU Trade and Climate Diplomacy, both organised by CIFE together with the LUISS School of Government, Rome. He teaches sustainable economics and finance and works together with different European (European Commission, Parliament, Council of Ministers) and international institutions (OECD, World Bank, UNFCCC, UNCCD), think tanks, foundations and NGOs in the governance of sustainable development. He holds a PhD in economics, an MBA from the University of Sankt Gallen (Switzerland), and a Post-Master degree from the College of Europe in Bruges.

DR PATRICK MUTHENGI MALUKI University of Nairobi

Dr Patrick Maluki is co-chair of the Sustainable Development Solutions Network (SDSN) Kenya, chairman of the Diplomacy Scholars Association of Kenya (DIPSAK), and Senior Lecturer at the Institute of Diplomacy and International Studies of the University of Nairobi. Dr Maluki is an experienced trainer and researcher in international conflict management, strategic planning, international negotiation and mediation, international political economy, diplomacy, human rights and governance, and peace building issues. He has carried out academic research and published extensively, in particular on questions of radicalisation and violent extremism. Currently, he is implementing sustainable development solutions in Kenya under the Sustainable Development Solutions Network - Kenya Chapter.

DR SHABAN MAYANJA GIZ Higher Education for Development, Bonn

Dr Shaban Mayanja is a policy advisor in the Education Sector Programme in charge of the recently established Servicepoint Higher Education for Development at the GIZ in Bonn. Prior to that he coordinated the European Universities Alliance Initiative at Paderborn University. He was deployed as a DAAD lecturer at the Obafemi Awolowo University in Nigeria and at the University of Nairobi in Kenya where he was the coordinator of a DAAD funded regional German Masters Programme. He also lectured at the Universities of Vienna and Bayreuth. He is a certified translator and interpreter and has supervised many postgraduate students. His research interests include Translation Studies, Intercultural German Studies and African Literature. He obtained his PhD in Intercultural German Studies with a focus on translation at the Leibniz University Hanover.

DR CATHERINE MORRIS University of Kent, Canterbury

Dr Catherine Morris is an experienced sustainability professional within Higher Education with over 12 years of experience in leading change and delivering impactful and engagement sustainability projects on the ground. As Environmental Adviser for the University of Kent she is responsible for the development and implementation of an institution-wide sustainability strategy, and the operation and certification of the University's Environmental Management System to ISO14001. Previously, she worked as project advisor on water efficiency at the University of Liverpool and as an Assistant researcher on irrigation wetting patterns at the University of Nottingham. She holds a PhD in Soil Water Flow.

DR SUSANN HEINECKE
Centre international de formation européenne, Berlin

Dr Susann Heinecke is Director of CIFE's Master of Advanced European and International Studies – European Policy and Governance – Trilingual Studies. Previously, she coordinated a PhD Support Programme for doctoral students from Central Asia and the Southern Caucasus as well as the Horizon2020 project SENeCA at CIFE. She worked as a consultant for the CIS countries at the State Chancellery of Brandenburg and as a guest lecturer at several universities in Moscow and St. Petersburg. She studied in Leipzig and Lyon and holds a PhD in political science. Her research interests include foreign policy and international relations' theories, developments in Russia, Eastern Europe and Central Asia and the EU's external and neighbourhood policies.